

MEDIA ADVISORY

TORONTO, November 08, 2014 – On Tuesday December 16, AccessPoint on Danforth will unite the community to help ring in the holiday season with our 5th Annual Holiday Dinner at AccessPoint on Danforth!

The dinner is a family friendly event that aims to bring the Taylor Massey community together and will play host to an evening of fun activities including gingerbread cookie decorating, face painting, family crafts, and much more. This event has been organized thanks to the financial support of BMO Financial Services and with the help of our community partners including Access Alliance Multicultural Health and Community Services, East York East Toronto Family Resources, Action for Neighborhood Change and Toronto Employment and Social Services.
