Questions to ask your candidates

Healthcare

- What steps would you take to help more people get healthcare while making sure doctors and nurses aren't overworked?
- Many people can't afford mental health help and must wait too long to get it. How would you make mental health care more available to everyone in Ontario?

Decent Work

- How would you protect all workers' rights in Ontario, no matter what kind of job they have or who they are?
- What would you do to make sure everyone in Ontario can earn enough money to live on?

Food Security

- How would you help people get land and green spaces to grow food for themselves and their families?

Affordable Housing

- What would you do to help make housing cheaper and better in Toronto, and how would you protect renters?

Newcomers

- How would you help refugees and asylum seekers learn English or French so they can better access Ontario life and work?
- How would you help people who were trained as professionals in other countries find work that matches their skills in Ontario?

Community Safety

- Many people, especially older residents, feel less safe in our community. What would you do to help people feel safe enough to go outside and take walks again?
- Our community needs better crime prevention programs. What safety programs would you create to protect people?
